Strike of Dockworkers in Vera

Cruz Is Ended.

VERA CRUZ, December 19.—The strike of the dockworkers was settled last night at a conference between representatives of the men and B. F. Hollway, general manager of the Mexican railway and the Vera Cruz terminal. The workers planned to go back to their jobs today under an agreement providing a 22 per cent wage increase for a period of three months.

During that time the men are to organize a co-operative union. The terminal company then agrees to hand over its management to the workers, who will handle all the freight, but if the men fail to organize the union in this time the company will continue its operations and the workers wages wil be increased 50 per cent over the present scale.
